INTERPRETER IS SUED BY CLIENT

John Zavodin Claims That Negligence of Topptizer Caused Him to Forfeit Right of Appeal in Law Suit.

Making his lack of knowledge of English a basis for his complaint, Andrew Zavodin of the West end has instituted proceedings against Cornelius Topptizer, the court interpreter, asking for $1,000 damages. On Oct. 1, 1906, the plaintiff was sued by John Zavodin, the suit starting over the sale of a saloon. Zavodin's body was attached, and he was placed in jail. He employed Topptizer to act as interpreter and agent for him in his defense. As he was unable to speak English, he alleged that he was informed by Topptizer that he need give himself no further trouble, as the city court had rendered judgment in his favor. On Jan. 19, 1907, the city court rendered judgment against him for $212 and costs of $45.18. The first knowledge of the judgment he had was when proceedings were begun to collect on his property in Austria-Hungary. Zavodin claims that by reason of the defendant's negligence he was subject to great expense.

U. of S. Ladies Give Mrs. Guest Surprise

A merry party of Scotch ladies gave Mr. John Guest of Hallett street a very pleasant surprise on Thursday evening. They assembled at the home of one of their number and assailed the Guest household en masse. The good lady was genuinely surprised at the visit, but soon recovered her equanimity. Her friends brought with them a useful household present and after the formal presentation, the evening was spent in mirth and jollity. At a late hour the party sat down to a well served collation and it was very nearly noon of night before they took homeward their several ways.

FAIRFIELD

Robert Barrimore and family of Bridgeport have been visiting N. W. Ogden of Congress street.

The assessors of the town are industriously at work on the tax lists. At one time the town had some 20,000 acres of land which were entered for taxation, but this finally dwindled to about 15,000. The custom once was to include two acres of land with each house and tax it as belonging to the house. The law now requires that houses shall be entered separately. This restores to the owner of real estate some 3,000 acres. The tax assessors say that people who object to having their property taxed at its full value, forget that if this is done the whole amount on the grand list will be increased so much that it will not be necessary to lay a tax of so many mills or a dollar, whereas if there is undervaluation the grand list is smaller and the rate of taxation has to be increased. The fact is the town must have a certain revenue for current expenses, such as good roads, schools, etc., and if it cannot be had one way it will be by another.

The latest news from the "baby carriage case" is to the effect that the prosecution does not seem inclined to press the matter, in the hope of getting damages. If it ever does come to trial, the expectation is it will be tried before a jury.

Doy; assistant superintendent, Bacon Wakeman; treasurer, Livingston G. Smith; superintendent of primary department, Miss Ada C. Sterling; superintendent of the cradle roll department, Miss Mary West. The school has about 150 pupils. It was voted to give $5 as a Thanksgiving offering to buy supplies for the poor. This church annually makes up a number of baskets for Thanksgiving dinners and sends to the needy. The sum of $10 was voted to be used for the Foreign Sunday School Association, of which for this State Rev. Mr. Woodruff of Black Rock is the president.

A hot house is being built by Jesse Pratt of Greenfield Hill.

Mrs. George Wilbur Smith of this town, wife of the proprietor of the Village Store, Bridgeport, has been elected in Hartford a member of the Society of Mayflower Descendants.

The statement that has found currency to the effect that 16 acres of the estate of Mrs. Charles Bradley, known as Gilbert Hill, a little north of the Jonas Kissam place on Greenfield Hill, has been purchased by I. DeVer Warren of Bridgeport, is doubted by gentlemen in town who have good opportunities for knowing. Three times before it has been reported sold. It may be that negotiations are in progress for its sale, but that is another thing. Henry Tobin and family have gone to New York.

A SURE WAY OUT QUICK RELIEF

It is a Positive Fact That in Not One Out of a Thousand of Supposed Kidney Cases Does the Trouble Really Lie with the Kidneys.

Practically all the so-called kidney trouble is really Bladder Trouble. Although sometimes intensely painful, and always annoying, it may be easily and quickly cured with GOLD MEDAL HAARLEM OIL CAPSULES. There are other troubles arising in organs connected with the bladder which are also quickly relieved by the use of GOLD MEDAL HAARLEM OIL CAPSULES. Full information is given in the printed matter enclosed in each box. The Bladder is the receptacle for discharges from the Kidneys. Under normal conditions nature disposes of the contents of this reservoir (the bladder) promptly and without pain. Once inflammation sets in, however, the contents may be retained for an unusual length of time, thus producing much pain and discomfort, or may be expelled with abnormal frequency and be the cause of much inconvenience and trouble. All of this may be relieved and finally cured by the use of GOLD MEDAL HAARLEM OIL CAPSULES. GOLD MEDAL HAARLEM OIL is put up in two forms, in CAPSULES and BOTTLES. Capsules 25c. and 50c. per box. Bottles, 15c. and 35c. At all druggists. Be sure that you obtain the Gold Medal brand, otherwise you will get an imitation. Literature free.

BLACK OPALS

As Described by the Artist Du Ble

"When Nature had finished painting the flowers, coloring the rainbow and dyeing the plumage of the birds, she swept the colors from her palette and moulded them into Black Opals."

This may be a little fanciful, but it is no exaggeration of the beauty and marvel of these gems. Some stones are as soft in tone as the iris on the neck of a dove, others as notous in color as a Dutch garden in spring.
